

Santas Pizza wins 'Takeaway of the Year' Award

Santas Pizza won the 'Takeaway of the Year' award at the Food Awards England 2015. An early Xmas present for the family run East Lancashire based company, with branches in Nelson, Burnley, Accrington and Blackburn.

More than 200 people attended the glamorous evening hosted by Miss United Kingdom Supranational Rachele Perez at the Mercure Manchester Piccadilly Hotel.

The awards celebrate and reward the very best in England's food sector. Selected based on a public vote, the awards commend the talented individuals and businesses who are dedicated to constantly delivering high-quality dishes, produce and supplies to ensure impeccable service to their customers.

Ishrat Mehdi of Santas Pizza said "There were many businesses from all over England at the awards and for Santas to be recognised in the Food Awards England was a great honour for the business, but to actually win the regional and then the national award is an outstanding achievement. I would like to thank everyone for their support and congratulate the Santa's team for their well deserved achievement, this award is a recognition for their dedication and hard work"
